"World Of Song & Dance" Shows

Tickets are now on sale for the 'World Of Song & Dance' shows at Reeth Memorial Hall on Friday 27th June at 7:30pm and Saturday 28th June at 2:30pm & 7:30pm. Tickets priced £8 adults/£4 children (16 & under) available from Reeth Post Office.

There's no doubt this will be an exciting journey around the world, calling in at each continent on the way. The dances, by the Janet Seymour School of Theatre Dance, will be lively and colourful, from the Can Can to the Cha Cha. Songs from across the globe, including a great medley from Joseph, will be performed by the children of Arkengarthdale, Reeth & Gunnerside and Richmond School, not forgetting some staff and governors who will also be treading the boards! Plus Five Pearls & A Piano will be heading to Eurovision with plenty of boom-bang-a-bang! Proceeds from two of the shows are in aid of Arkengarthdale and Reeth & Gunnerside Schools, with the third show supporting Hannah Smith's charity project to Ecuador. Don't leave it too late though, tickets for the variety shows have a habit of selling out!

TAKING A STEP BACK IN TIME TO THE VICTORIAN TIMES, THE BIG DIG AND JOSEPH

The children are studying The Victorians this term and to support this topic will be visiting Richmond Station to experience 'Top Hats, whistles and waistcoats'. This is a morning of seeing what it was like living and working on the railways and at the Station in the Victorian Times. We've also had great fun and discovered some very exciting facts when delving into the school archives to find out what was happening in Arkengarthdale during the Victorian era. Sue Nicholson, part of SWAAG, will be coming into school to talk to the children about what she has found out after looking at the archives, giving them an insight into the lives of generations of schoolchildren from the handwriting classes for Arkengarthdale Sports. Please do come along and support this fabulous Dale's event on Saturday 7th June, which commences at 1pm in Langthwaite with the traditional march and fancy dress procession, led by Muker Band, to the sports field. As well as entering their handwriting, the children will also be preparing artwork, alongside other classes such as cookery and photography.

The children are really enjoying the Big Dig project and have had two exciting days at Gunnerside School learning how to dig an archaeological test pit, in preparation for the Big Dig in Reeth in June. They were taught that the pit is dug scientifically in a series of layers and shown how to record each step, in order to make a record of the artefacts and cultural material that they find. This was followed by a series of activities to enable the children to gain a greater understanding about Geology, timelines and artefacts.

Our 5 pupils in year 4 are looking forward to their residential visit to Marrick Priory. They will join Richmond Methodist children for 2 days and 2 nights of outdoor activities, challenges and team building. I look forward to reporting on this in the next issue.

After their successes at the recent Wensleydale Tournament of Song, members of the School Choir are now rehearsing for their next performance. Under the direction of Emma Wardell and Rod Hall, they are learning a medley of songs from Joseph & His Technicolour Dreamcoat as a joint project with pupils from Reeth & Gunnerside Schools. They will perform the medley at 'The World Of Song & Dance' variety shows at Reeth Memorial Hall on 27th and 28th June. Other children from school are taking part with the Janet Seymour School of Theatre Dance and as narrators, not to mention a few governors and members of staff! Proceeds from the concerts are in aid of Arkengarthdale School and Reeth & Gunnerside School so I do hope you will support our children at this event. Tickets are available from Reeth Post Office.

A final note of congratulations for our Key Stage 2 pupils. Three of our football teams recently attended their respective tournaments. The mixed Y3/4 team did really well, winning through from their league and narrowly losing in the semi-final. The girls' team did the same, cruelly losing their semi-final on penalties. The Y5/6 team found the large schools' competition somewhat stiffer, but acquitted themselves well. Our quiz team took part in the regional qualifying rounds of the National Quiz Competition at Le Cateau School. They did extremely well, competing on level terms with much larger schools and were only beaten by the team from our partner school, Richmond Methodist.

As the last term of the academic year reaches its halfway point, it is a time to take stock of the past year's achievements. At whole school level this has been an exciting year in which we have taken part in and organized for ourselves, a huge range of local and regional activities. As a recent visitor to school remarked to me, "yours is a very high profile school of course" Well what can we say except "Of course!"

For our creative and talented staff it has been a year of settling into new classes and for some, teaching new age ranges, while working tirelessly to help our children be the best they can be. In May / June as teachers we look even more closely than usual at the progress made across the year by each child. For those staying with us next year, we begin to put in place support to help them overcome any barriers which might be holding them back in their learning.

At individual pupil level it is the time of year to assess themselves against in-year targets. Have they learned those tables and seen maths get easier as a result? Have they worked to improve their handwriting and can mum and dad see the difference? Have they read at home regularly and seen the lifelong benefit of confident reading? If not..... perhaps next year? But my strong advice to those pupils and their parents is don't leave it too late - don't put it off, get it done! There is nothing more daunting for a child than facing secondary school without all the skills to cope when they get there.

We have some great reasons to celebrate in Reeth and Gunnerside Schools in the coming weeks (quite apart from the Tour de France!). Our Art Week in the Spring was a huge success and I hope many of you got to Hudson House to see some of the work on display there in May. There will be more of our work out and about during the summer to coincide with Le Tour. Look out especially for the wonderful Diorama of all the Tour Cyclists, made by all the children from 4 to 11 yrs which is already on display in Overton House Café in Reeth by kind permission of Fiona and Andrew Howard. More of our work will be on show at Philip Bastow's workshop in Place Hill, during June and July. Pop along and have a look. The children's photography is quite stunning and we are in the process of making some of the images into postcards for sale in the local area and at school events.

Speaking of memorable events, the time has come around again for the fundraising variety show organized by Jill Lundberg on behalf of the three local schools. This show is always a popular event and tickets sell out fast. Many of our past and present pupils, as well as a large number of adults with a huge range of talents from within our community take part. It really is a very special show. This year's performances are on the evening of Friday 27th June and two shows on Saturday 28th June. Come and support the local talent and help with our local fundraising.

And lastly a reminder for you and a plea for your support for our 'Bags to School' collection taking place at 9am on Thursday 6th June. Collection bags are available from both schools and we are collecting clothes, blankets, curtains, in fact any kind of

A Help to Older People (with wheels, if useful)

Is this something that you, or a relative or friend of yours would value and enjoy:

❖ practical help at home - some specific examples I've helped with include: housekeeping jobs eg curtains cleaned & re-hung, duvet covers changed; simple gardening; DIY including painting; cupboards & sheds organised; errands run; preparations made for guests.

❖ the chance of getting out & about - do you have an appointment to get to, a favourite place you've not visited for a while, or a friend you'd like to see?

What is important to you and would make a difference? If I can help, I will.

Please call me if you would like a leaflet about the sort of things I do, costs, availability etc.

fabric, plus bags and shoes, at both school sites in the week leading up to 6th June. If you are unable to get into school and want someone to come and collect your bag, leave a message at school on 884308 and we will arrange collection. Our last collection was very well supported. Let's see if we can beat the record and raise much needed funds for our schools. Thank you for your continued support. Linda and Staff.

WENSLEYDALE DECORATIVE AND FINE ARTS SOCIETY

Sir Stanley Spencer: An Autobiography in Pictures

Sir Stanley Spencer, (1891-1959) one of Britain's greatest painters and a visionary artist, noted, "my longings became pictures". Endlessly autobiographical, his name became synonymous with Cookham, the village he immortalised, which shaped his work throughout his career, and formed the setting for numerous biblical and figure paintings, as well as beautifully accurate landscapes. He also left images of two World Wars. His mural decorations at Sandham Memorial Chapel, Burghclere, commemorating World War 1, are one of the great achievements of twentieth century painting. His figure paintings reflect his turbulent private life which can be traced through the sequence of pictures. Carolyn Leder will discuss his life and work. She is Curator of the Old Speech Room Gallery, Harrow School and historical advisor to BBC TV. Her books include "Stanley Spencer: The Astor Collection". She is a Trustee at the Stanley Spencer Gallery at Cookham. The Wensleydale Decorative and Fine Arts Society lecture is at 2.00pm on Tuesday 10th June at the Middleham Key Centre. Non-members are welcome at £6 per lecture, pre-booking is essential, membership and further information is available from 01748 886545

UPPER DALES FAMILY HISTORY GROUP

April's speaker was Chris Makepeace, with The Camera As Historian. He began by reminding us that every time we take a photograph it is capturing a little piece of history and that every time we look at one, we will get something different out of it. He gave us a brief outline of photography back to the 1850s and explained that early photographs were most often of buildings and scenery rather than people or animals because of the long exposure times required. As techniques developed it became possible to capture more natural scenes of everyday life in astonishing detail. Photographs were used as a record very early on by the organisation for the preservation of Ancient Monuments, but it was not long before records were also made of slums before clearance – one particular photographer toured the back streets of Manchester with his, very heavy, camera equipment on the back of a horse and cart, the only safe way to take pictures in the area. Chris told us what to look for in dating photographs, pointing out advertising hoardings and names of shops, pubs, modes of transport, as well as hats and fashions. In some cases the presence of scaffolding round significant buildings could pin down a date; the appearance of street lighting was another useful aid.

This month's meeting is on June 25, 7.30pm at Harmby Village Hall near Leyburn when Julia Mander will be speaking on Georgian Life and Times - The 'Polite Society' of York?

The UDFHG is a branch of the Cleveland Family History Society; admission is free to members of Cleveland FHS and non-members are very welcome at £2. For

Crime in The 2 Dales

During the last two months we have received several reports of suspect vehicles and persons in Arkengarthdale, Reeth, Ellerton Abbey and Marske. In Healaugh a window of a vehicle was smashed and items removed including two day sacks containing climbing equipment, a mobile phone and iphone and other items were stolen. In Gunnerside heating oil was stolen from a tank. Due to the increase in the number of cyclists on our roads driver consideration would be advised when approaching narrow roads and bends where visibility of the road ahead is difficult and cyclists are advised to ride in single file and keep to the left. There will be several organised events where large numbers of cyclists will be on the roads so extra care and patience will be needed. Both vehicles and property should be left secure at all times and any valuables kept out of view. To report any incidents or suspicious persons and vehicles please call 101 in a non emergency or 999 in an emergency.

REETH PARISH COUNCIL

Election of officers Coun Bearpark was re-elected as chairman, Coun Kendall as vice chairman, Couns Allinson and Frankland as green wardens, Coun Rutter as Memorial Hall representative and Coun Bearpark as market representative. Ian Scott agreed to continue as parish clerk for the coming year. Accounts The council's accounts for the past year were accepted. Road drainage Attempts to locate a culvert to carry surface water near Cambridge House had so far been unsuccessful. Parking Coun Allinson would monitor the situation regarding parking over the top of the Half Moon cellar on High Row. Union flag Coun Kendall reported that a new Union Flag had been obtained and was now in use. Fire service Councillors discussed a review of Fire Service responsibilities in North Yorkshire and would object strongly to any possible reductions in the level of service or coverage in the area. New parish council It was noted that households in Ellerton were being asked if they wished to combine their current parish meeting with Grinton parish council. Pinfold The current tenant had confirmed that he wished to continue with the lease for the coming year. Hudson House There were no objections to a planning application to erect a sculpture in the garden of Hudson House to mark the Tour de France. Big Dig Councillors were invited to attend the start of the Swaledale and Arkengarthdale Archaeology Group's Big Dig on Saturday, May 17. Grass cutting Residents from Fremington had asked who should cut the grass on Fremington corner. Councillors understood that this was the responsibility of the county council but would clarify the matter. Metcalfs Farm New plans for this work were expected soon. Tour de France An update on plans was received from the local organising committee. The main road would be closed from midnight and there would be information in the May Gazette about parking arrangements for residents. Councillors felt that this was far too long and would cause problems for people who needed to get to work on the day of the race. Volunteers were needed to help picking up litter and sites were required for the portaloos. It was agreed to charge any food stalls or vans which turned up on the day. The Buck had applied for a licence to sell alcohol on the green from backpacks. Highways Reminders would be sent of a number of outstanding repairs in the parish including street lights which were not working and the broken kerbstones near the Old Temperance. Repairs and maintenance Repairs were needed to the cracked concrete in the shelter, the step to the telephone kiosk and the playground wall. There were also a number of loose cobbles in Healaugh square. Weeds growing on High Row needed to be sprayed. A quote would be obtained for an additional honesty box. Public transport Coun Gardner updated the meeting on changes to the bus service which were almost finalised.

LE TOUR REETH - JUNE GAZETTE

Only a month to go! Will we ever see the like of it again? Well, it's the biggest annual sporting event on the planet, watched world-wide by a television audience of over 3,500,000,000 people, and the chances of it coming through again Reeth are slim - so let's make the most of it. If you haven't already done so, it's time to hang up that bunting, paint those bikes yellow and decorate the village so that the visitors to Reeth get a real sense of a festive atmosphere and are persuaded to make return visits.

If you do have friends or family travelling up on the Friday, advise them to come as early as possible. It is quite likely that the roads will become increasingly congested as the day progresses. Many of the accommodation providers / camp sites have taken bookings from Thursday to Sunday, so even on the Thursday there is likely to be plenty of traffic.

Generally speaking, cycling enthusiasts are a friendly bunch and there will be many family groups. The organisers do not expect any conflicts such as you might get with opposing football fans for example. However, large crowds invariably attract light-fingered folk. You might be used to leaving the front door unlocked, not worrying about any walk-in thieves, but you are advised to be on your guard over the weekend and make sure your property and possessions are secure.

Some good news about parking: Paul and Clare Brown have generously allowed us to use their field to the rear of the houses in Back Lane for residents' parking. Parking will be difficult on that weekend and with the large numbers milling around Reeth, you may not wish to leave your car in the centre. Remember also that any car parked on the route will be towed away, so this is a good option for locals and their guests. The parking will be available for permit holders only from Thursday 3rd July to Sunday 6th July. Permits are available from Reeth Post Office in return for a donation - all money raised will be shared between GNAA/Mountain Rescue/Reeth Medical Centre. Please note that parking will be at the car owner's risk and that permits must be displayed.

If you are still trying to arrange camping or other accommodation for guests, the Richmondshire website www.richmondshire.gov.uk has a wealth of information about local arrangements for and events associated with Le Tour. Don't forget also that the best place to go for the up to date information about road closures is www.northyorks.gov.uk.

One final word of warning: On the day of the race, they will be putting safety barriers along both sides of the road through Reeth. They are scheduled to do this at 5.00am and it will be noisy. So if you live near the road you might get an early wake up call. Although, you will probably be so excited that the day has finally arrived, that you will be awake long before then.

WOE, WOE AND THRICE WOE ...

So said the old soothsayer in "Up Pompeii!" as she predicated the end of the world below the grumbling flanks of Vesuvius!!

There have been two such stories in the press and being widely circulated over the last couple of weeks (as I write). Is the world coming to an end - well a bit of yes and no:

Windows XP finally reached the end of its support life and Microsoft are doing their level best now to terrify everyone into giving up Windows XP and splash out on Windows 8 (or more likely a new computer with Windows 8 installed). If you have Windows XP you have almost certainly seen the dire warnings popping up on a regular basis that the computer is likely to melt down from the onslaught of attacks from various criminal elements.

I have mentioned this a couple of times before - and Microsoft are being almost fraudulently disingenuous about their warnings - it is all about money - you have it - they want it.

It is true that without updates over time Windows XP will become less secure but with a combination of security solutions on your computer there is no reason why it should be binned instantly. Here is what I suggest as a three step plan:

a) Turn off Windows update - that should cause the screams to subside a little from Microsoft. (Click Start > Control Panel and double click on System - there is a tab controlling automatic updates - go there and turn them off).

b) Make sure you have a good antivirus installed - Microsoft are giving very mixed messages about their own antivirus, Microsoft Security Essentials - sometimes they will support it and sometimes they say they won't. If you are using MSE err on the side of caution. Uninstall it (Control Panel > Add and Remove Programs) and then buy a decent security suite - for once I would recommend buying something. I find AVAST is pretty good and not too hungry to use all your computer's resources - go for the full security suite at www.avast.com. Good alternatives are AVG and Avira suites.

c) Stop using Internet Explorer as your browser - XP's browser is out of date - instead download and use either Google Chrome (www.google.co.uk) or Firefox (www.mozilla.org).

A further security option you can add is Malwarebytes Antimalware (www.malwarebytes.org) which I mentioned last month. Buy a copy so that it gives full time protection and updates.

The Heartbleed Bug is in a different league as security issues go. All secure websites use a program to provide secure connections (called a Secure Socket Layer - or SSL) so that all of your messages to that website are encrypted and, in theory, can't be spied on and information stolen. There are a number of programs that provide this function and only one of them is affected by the Heartbleed bug - unfortunately it is used by approximately two thirds of all secure websites worldwide. The upshot of this is if you have ever shopped or banked online the chances are some of the websites you have visited will be affected. There is no way to know if any of your personal data (including credit card numbers) have been compromised. The fix for this bug is twofold - first the company that is affected needs to patch their webserver and also get new security certificates for their website - and then all customers (you) should change your password. Many companies for obvious reasons aren't too happy to disclose that they are affected so it is difficult to know when to change your password - there is no point until they have fixed the problem at their end.

Best suggestion I can give is change your passwords now - and in a couple of weeks do it again when the dust has settled. It is good practice anyway to change your passwords regularly!

That's all this month. Any questions or suggestions for articles drop me a line at carol.haynes@dalescomputerservices.com or via Facebook www.facebook.com/dalescomputerservices.

SWALEDALE BIG DIG BEGINS

Residents of Reeth in Swaledale will become amateur archaeologists this weekend (Sat & Sun, 17-18 May) when they arm themselves with spades and trowels for two days of test-pit digging in their own gardens. It's the start of the community action phase of the Swaledale Dale Big Dig - a two-year Heritage Lottery backed project to search for clues to medieval and ancient history in the villages of Reeth, Fremington and Grinton. The first eight of more than 30 test pits on private and public land in Reeth will be dug this weekend, with further sessions planned for the village in June and July. The Big Dig was officially launched in March by TV archaeologist and Time Team expert Dr Carenza Lewis, of Cambridge University, and is the biggest challenge so far undertaken by the Swaledale and Arkengarthdale Archaeology Group (SWAAG). Project manager for SWAAG, Alan Mills explained: "Multiple test pits are an established method of exploration and are supported by distinguished archaeologists. They have produced remarkable results in other parts of the country. "It's about digging pits a meter square and up to a meter deep wherever people will offer a patch of land. By piecing together the information we discover we should be able to build a broad picture about the nature and timing of the development of the human settlement, and therefore gain a better understanding of our local history. "The more test pits we dig the better will be the results, so although we already have a good number planned we are still keen to hear from anyone else who would like to offer a patch of ground to be explored in Reeth this year or next, and in Fremington and Grinton for next year. The nature of a test pit and the commitment required are explained very clearly in a video 'How to get involved' on the home page of our web site at www.swaag.org." The Swaledale Big Dig has received funding of £76,000 from the Heritage Lottery Fund and is also supported by the Yorkshire Dales National Park Authority.

The project will run to the end of 2015. Further information is available at www.swaag.org

DALES PUPILS SEARCHED FOR THE PAST UNDER THEIR SCHOOL FIELD

Primary school pupils were given an introduction to archaeology when the first field event of the lottery-backed Swaledale Big Dig took place on Thursday and Monday, 24 and 28 April. Youngsters aged 7 to 11 from the dale gathered one Thursday morning at Gunnerside Methodist School to help set grids for a geophysical survey of their playing field. On the same morning they were involved in analysing the results, and all day on Monday they were supervised digging a test pit, following the strict rules of archaeological science. The event was being organised and supervised by the staff of the Reeth Community and Gunnerside Methodist Federated Primary Schools, supported by members of the Swaledale and Arkengarthdale Archaeology Group (SWAAG), which is managing the Big Dig project. Pupils from Arkengarthdale Church of England School were also involved. Alan Mills, SWAAG project manager, said: "As part of the project's commitment to contribute to education in the community I am delighted that we have this early opportunity to get involved with the local schools. "Several members of SWAAG will be sharing their expertise in archaeological surveying, exploration and analysis, in geology, and even in mathematics. The children will be able to see the surveying equipment that they might otherwise only have seen on television. And in setting out the survey grid so that the corners are set at perfect right-angles they will have a rare opportunity to make practical use of the Pythagoras theorem. Hopefully they will also find something of interest under the soil."

Fund raising news:

The Fat Sheep, Reeth have raised £33.37 from their collection box & The Laurels B&B, Reeth have raised £44.37.

Toilet humour!

We're planning a fund-raising campaign for the Tour de France which involves posters on the back of toilet doors linked to our JustText Giving code. If you're planning a campsite, event or car parking with portaloos or if you're willing to let us put A4 posters on the back of toilet doors in pubs or cafes then please let us know. Full details to follow in the July edition but please volunteer your toilet doors now. All money raised is used to pay for insurance, maintenance and running of our three emergency vehicles, operating and up keep of our base, and the replacement of rescue and medical equipment.

The meadows will soon be in flower so try to keep to the paths across them.

Thanks for the continued support to all our readers.

Enjoy the hills!

MESSAGE from the SWALEDALE MUSEUM in REETH

Time to come and see what is new in the Swaledale Museum in Reeth! We are open everyday 10.00 am to 5.00 pm until 4th October. Come and see what is new in the permanent collection, we have new panels on Methodism, plus a new Stone Walling feature; take a look at our temporary exhibition on 'People of the Dale' in the newly refurbished Upper Gallery; or come and see what we have in our newly stocked Shop, you might even need a cup of tea or coffee to keep you going as there is so much to do!

We are looking forward to working with SWAAG on the Big Dig project with children from Reeth and Gunnerside schools this month, and welcoming the Swift Caravan Club for a tour and talk. We will be at Middleham Key Centre at 2pm on 17th June talking about 'Stitched Stories - reading women's work through Dales samplers'. Then we have the MEGA MUSEUM QUIZ on Saturday 21st June in the Museum at 7.30 pm, come and test your local knowledge, have some fun, and discover some extraordinary facts to impress your friends! Tickets from the Museum, £8 visitors and £6 Friends of the Museum.

Don't forget our first Friends of the Museum talk on Wednesday 11th June by Shaun Richardson on his new survey of the Octagon Smelt Mill. For reasons that are entirely understandable, the Octagon Mill, close to the Reeth to Tan Hill road, Arkengarthdale, North Yorkshire, has acquired an almost mythical status amongst students of Yorkshire leadsmelting. Its size and form gave it a presence that drove 20th century observers to make comparisons with the remains of much earlier periods, including medieval tithe barns and castles. It is therefore unfortunate that today, one can find no individual sections longer than a metre or so still surviving. Supplemented by local oral research, and previously unpublished photographic evidence held by the Northern Mines Research Society, this new survey work has substantially increased our understanding of this important but short-lived complex. Shaun Richardson is an archaeologist, working for Ed Dennison Archaeological Services Ltd, Beverley, East Yorkshire, specialising in the study of buildings within their landscape settings.

On Wednesday 18th June David M. Copeland will give a talk on 'Willie Riley (1866-1961), Novelist and Champion of the Yorkshire Dales'. Between the two World Wars, Riley was a well-loved and prolific writer of middle-brow popular fiction, his stories mostly set in the Yorkshire Dales or Bradford.

But he was an author by accident. His first and most famous novel, "Windyridge", was published, much against his better judgement, in 1912, when he was already 46 years old. At the time he was a successful Bradford businessman. Two years later, just before the onset of the First World War, his business went bankrupt, and Riley turned to writing. From then on he published an average of one book a year until the end of the Second World War. He was also a Methodist local preacher for an extraordinary 75 years, and his Christian faith is reflected gently in his writing. His novels are set in real locations, but disguised by fictitious names; and part of the fun of reading a Riley novel is to identify the setting. Many people would do so, and then visit the locations he described so lovingly. This was an early example of literary tourism. Sadly he is almost completely forgotten today, although those who have recently read his books (still to be found in the second-hand market) generally find his writing attractive and enjoyable. "Windyridge" was republished in 2010, nearly 50 years after it went out of print. Copies of Windyridge will be available at the special price of £5.00 at the event.

On Wednesday 23rd July William Van Vugt Professor of History at Calvin Collge, Grand Rapids, Michigan will give a talk on 'Dales Emigration to America in the English Context'

This paper is part of a new research project concentrating on how Dales emigrants were similar or not in some of the most important and interesting features of nineteenth century migrant populations. By looking at comparisons with other migrants Professor Van Vugt hopes to reveal future research directions. Those who come to this lecture are encouraged to bring with them any letters, journals and diaries connected with 'those who left the Dales' for America at this time. His most recent publication is British immigration to the United States, 1776-1914, Pickering Chatto, 2009, a four volume work edited by him.

All talks in the Museum, start 7.30 am. As space is limited advance booking advised. £3 for Friends of the Museum, £4 for visitors.

We look forward to seeing you in the Museum

REETH BAND

The band held its annual general meeting at the Buck Hotel on the 28th April. Brian Hicks (musical director) congratulated the band on its excellent standards over the year and also commented on the welcome new members who have recently joined the band. Over £5000 has been raised in the year for local charities, with the most recent concert raising £800 for Yorkshire Cancer Research. The chairman, Irwin Blenkiron also added his thanks to all the members of the band and the community who have supported the band over the year.

The band continues with a very busy year of engagements, with the highlight of the year at the Swaledale festival on 3rd June at 7.30 in Grinton Church, where the theme will be 'Spotlight for soloists'. On 6th June the band will be giving a charity concert in Masham Town Hall at 8.30, and will be leading the musical entertainment at Egglestone Gala on the 14th June. The band returns to Masham on the 20th June in support of the Churchyard Trust Garden Party from 7.30 -9.30. The band is next appearing on Reeth Green at 2pm on 6th July.

GRINTON CONSERVATION PROJECT -
NEWS
UPDATE MAY 2014

We were lucky to have ideal weather for our Open Day on 3 May, with our visitors and regular helpers enjoying a range of (mainly outdoor) activities. Our thanks go to Mark Hewitt (Wildlife Officer, Yorkshire Dales National Park Authority) and Tracy Little (Upper Dales Family History Group) for their support on the day. Thanks also to our 'core team' of helpers on the day, and the excellent cake and scones to help fuel the 'workers'!

Visitors got involved in a number of our projects. Several people helped Jonathan Dawson with the gravestone records - details are shared with Upper Dales Family History Group for their records.

Mark Hewitt gave scything tuition, enabling those new to the craft to make inroads into the long grass around the edge of the churchyard. Apparently, it's quite addictive! At least one new scythe was ordered this month.

Thanks also to Debbie from Scenicview gallery in Reeth, who took some excellent action photos to use for our information boards (in progress now).

Kevin Pellatt demonstrated wood-turning and other rustic crafts used in the Forest Schools activities. Sarah Allison's demonstration of how to make 'hymn book angels' proved popular.

Bees in April, John Wilkinson met Ian Broadwith and volunteers from the National Park Authority, who have provided a base and fencing for the beehive. Our bees should arrive in May, once the weather warms up.

Trees Neil Francis has now completed the tree survey, and this will be included as a layer on the detailed map created by Jonathan Dawson.

Wildflowers Marjorie Dawson is continuing to note the wildflowers appearing each month. We are designating a couple of areas where we will keep the grass under control to encourage more wildflower diversity.

We meet regularly for updates on the projects and to plan future activities. Come and join us - our next few meetings are:

Sat 7 June - 11am-12noon Bat talk, 9.30pm Bat watch (with the Swaledale Festival).

Sat 5 July Tour de France - no meeting

Sat 12 July - 10.30am meeting in church, discussion about future projects, churchyard summer tidy-up.

Sat 13 September - 10.30am meeting in church and work in churchyard. Possible moth survey (C Weetman to confirm)

Sat 4 October - 10.30am meeting in church and work in churchyard

Sat 1 November - indoor meeting at Fremington Sunday School. Details to follow.

Sat 6 December - indoor meeting at Fremington Sunday School - Christmas drinks and nibbles and planning for 2015.

Contact Catherine Weetman on 884780 if you'd like to receive email news updates.

NOTICE

Gunnerville Midsummer - Change of Date
For the first time in living memory, the date of Gunnerville's Midsummer Service will be moved. Instead of the traditional first Sunday in July, it will be held this year on Sunday 13th July.

The service will begin at 6.30pm, preceded by half an hour of Community Hymn Singing. (The alteration is because of the Tour de France the previous weekend.)

Sorry this is a rather brief report when there has been a lot of football getting in matches before the 31 May deadline.

Under 14's

On May 11 played Bedale away. Bedale took an early lead but after that the game tended to favour Dales but they couldn't find the net and Bedale had a strong defence. Ben Metcalfe then kept his cool to score after the Bedale goalie dropped the ball and then got another from very good play with Mattie Hawes. At the very end Scott Alderson clinched it from a powerful left kick. Thomas Walker was strong in defence but Dales were not at their best despite a 1-3 win.

Earlier in the week we played Catterick Garrison away in an evening match. Kyle Galloway opened the scoring after a "deliberate?" feint but a strong Garrison team responded with 3 goals in the second half. Lost 3-1.

Under 10's played a double header at Carperby. In an evenly balanced first match, Ryan Atkinson scored taking a lead into half time before Carperby equalized. Lewis Seall then made a very good run to go ahead and then got another from a free kick. Dales played well despite being short of all usual goalkeepers. Callum Bellwood stepped into this roll very well supported by Joe Alderson in defence. Won 1-3. There was far too short an interval between the matches and I had to leave half way through the second match to go to Bedale but saw Daniel Webster score and Lewis got another but Carperby became rather rattled and somewhat physical so our young squad conceded 3 for a 3-2 loss.

We are now looking very much to the end of season tournaments and next season for which we urgently need more players at all levels

GRINTON PARISH COUNCIL MAY 5

Election of officers. Coun Brown was re-elected as chairman and there were no changes to other council responsibilities.

Accounts The council's accounts for the past year were approved.

Highways The drainage problem on Swale Hall bank had been inspected and an order placed for the work to be done. Due to cut backs, pot holes were only being repaired where there was an urgent safety issue.

Village green The green had been reinstated where it had been used for parking and items of equipment had now been removed from the area of green by the bridge.

Parks Field National Park volunteers had repaired the muddy stretch of path across the field to Reeth bridge.

Tour de France The grants had now been received and would be used to provide banners and bunting for the route.

The district council had asked parishes to look for volunteers to collect litter as the vehicles normally used would not be able to get up the dale on the day of the race.

Best Kept Village Grinton would enter this year's competition.

New parish council Richmondshire District Council had written to households in Ellerton to ask if they wished to combine their current parish meeting with Grinton parish council.

Parish Meeting The wooden footbridge was in a dangerous state and should be temporarily closed off before the Tour de France. It was understood that the National Park had repaired it on a previous occasion and further steps would be taken to find out who owned the land at either end. The wall alongside the road near the footbridge was also very dangerous and this would be looked into at the same time. The footpath to the river opposite Mergill had been opened up. A latch was missing on the gate to Plantation and the gate at the Grinton end of the Corpse Way was catching. These would be reported to the National Park ranger.

REETH COMMUNITY ORCHARD AND HELP FOR HEROES

In common with most other organisations the Community Orchard is always looking for more help. Following a visit to Phoenix House, the Help for Heroes centre at Catterick, and hearing a talk from a member of staff there, one of our members had the of approaching them to help with some of the many jobs that we kept looking at and saying "We must do something about the laurel, ivy, and the compost etc."

Arrangements having been made, we were delighted. When the minibus drove up and 5 young men plus Roger the driver, arrived ready for action.

Following a short talk from Gill and a tour of the garden, the speed with which everything got done was amazing. The laurel got tamed and reshaped, the ivy was taken off the walls and trees, and the compost was bagged ready for sale. In addition shrubs and big clumps of plants were dug up and the area cleared where the sculpture to commemorate the Tour de France will be placed.

Fortified by coffee and cake, we all got to know each other a bit better. It was a great day working with a new group of people and we hope they enjoyed it as much as we did. This was definitely HELP FROM HEROES.

MIDDLEHAM AND DALES LOCAL HISTORY GROUP

Tuesday 17th June 2pm - Middleham Key
Centre

Stitched stories: reading women's work through Dales samplers and embroidery Helen Bainbridge

The exhibition of local samplers held at the Swaledale Museum in 2009 provided the opportunity of gathering together, for the first time, examples scattered across Swaledale and Arkengarthdale. Seeing the samplers in a group meant it was possible to reveal motifs, textual sources and individual lives. Since women's stories are often excluded from historical narratives, scholars have often had to turn to material evidence of this kind in order to understand the lives of women in the past. Rozsika Parker's 1984 book The subversive stitch: embroidery and the making of the feminine showed that embroidery, once the work of women and men, has over time become re-categorised as women's work. The result has been that "the same characteristics were ascribed to both [i.e. women and embroidery] as mindless, decorative and delicate". In this talk Helen will take up Rozsika Parker's radical approach to investigate the stitched stories of the Dales.

The talk will be illustrated with examples throughout, but Helen would be delighted if people could bring old Dales samplers in their possession along to the meeting. Helen Bainbridge has been owner and curator of The Swaledale Museum since 2004, but prior to moving to Reeth she pursued an academic career as an expert on contemporary and historic silver and taught for many years at the Victoria and Albert Museum. Under her expert care and supported by a group of dedicated volunteers and Friends, The Swaledale Museum is thriving and its collections grow ever larger.

Annual membership of MDLHG is £10 and visitors are welcome to attend individual meetings for a fee of £3. For further information, please contact Tony Keates 01969 640436 or email dotandtonyk@btinternet.com

DALES LADIES GROUP

Last Meeting

The 2014 AGM of the Dales Ladies group, which has monthly meetings at the Memorial Hall, Reeth, was the last meeting to be held.

Over the years the number of members has dwindled to the point where the group is now just not viable.

The AGM in May was a sad occasion for all the members present, particularly for those who could remember early meetings (then the Young Wives Group)

The minutes of a meeting in 1971, led by Mrs. F. Taylor are written in the first pages of the minute book-and now the minutes of this last meeting are at the end.

THE ORCHARD GALLERY @ HUDSON HOUSE

The Community Orchard is looking resplendent at the moment thanks to the hard work of the volunteers who tend it and the Gallery is benefiting from being in such beautiful surroundings. May saw a selection of diverse exhibitions including the exciting work of the school children of the two dales.

Currently showing is the work of Denise Burden whose work forms part of the Swaledale Festival and runs until the end of the Festival. Denise is an artist living in Wensleydale and her work features collage, original painting, prints and wooden sculptures all inspired by her observations of people, scenes or even books, observations that reflect the struggles and joys that come throughout life.

Starting on the 15th June and continuing until the 28th is a mixed media exhibition by the "2012 Art Group" members are based at The Bridge arts centre in Darlington.

Then starting on the 29th June and running until the 28th July, the Swaledale Festival is again hosting an event at the Gallery entitled "Re Cycling" Over a hundred local schoolchildren from four schools have been involved in the project and a sculpture by Reeth based artist Michael Kusz, commissioned by the Swaledale Festival, is to be erected in the Community Orchard as a lasting celebration of the arrival of the Tour de France in Swaledale.

The Orchard Gallery is open from 10.30 until 3.30 every day during exhibitions. For more information call 01748 884485 or e-mail admin@hudsonhouse.info

JUNE 10TH*NATIONAL PARK PREPARES FOR SPECIAL WEEK

The Yorkshire Dales National Park will be welcoming a very special visitor next week.

On Monday (May 19) staff at the Yorkshire Dales National Park Authority will be taking charge of the Tour de France Grand Départ trophy and it will be put on display at the Dales Countryside Museum in Hawes from about noon onwards.

The trophy, which is 40cms high, will then travel to the Grassington National Park Centre on the following day and be on display there on Wednesday (May 21). It will return to the Museum to go back on display there on Thursday (May 22).

Museum Manager Fiona Rosher said "We are thrilled to be able to display the Grand Départ trophy here at the Museum. Excitement about this international cycling event is building and we have had a great response to our "Daisy Daisy" cycling memories project.

"We've gathered some fantastic photos, diary entries and stories of people cycling in the Yorkshire Dales. I hope that those who visit to see the trophy might also share their memories of cycling that we'll include in our summer exhibition from June 13 to September 30."

Schools should contact the Museum on 01969 666210 or email dcm@yorkshiredales.org.uk to arrange a visit to see the trophy between 12.30pm and 2.30pm. When the trophy is on display for the general public to see, it will be exhibited within the free area of the Museum.

The Grassington National Park Centre will play host to the trophy on Wednesday (May 21) from 10am to 2.30pm and it will be available for school groups to view until 4.30pm. Schools should contact Grassington NPC in advance on 01756 751690 or grassington@yorkshiredales.org.uk to arrange a visit.

Centre Manager Chris Lancaster said: "With Le Grand Départ only two months away, we are thrilled to be able to display the trophy - especially as the first day of the race travels through the Yorkshire Dales National Park. There will be an opportunity to take photographs of the trophy while it is in Grassington and we hope people will come along."

The YDNPA's exclusive cycling jersey will be on sale at the Museum and at the NPC along with official Welcome to Yorkshire grand-depart merchandise and a range of other cycling-related gifts.

The Grand Départ Stage 1 will leave Leeds on July 5 for a breath-taking, 190-kilometre ride through the National Park to Harrogate. The route will go along Wharfedale, Bishopdale, Wensleydale and Swaledale, with climbs over Kidstones from Wharfedale into Bishopdale, Buttertubs Pass from Wensleydale to Swaledale and then out of Grinton towards Leyburn.

And on the following day, the cyclists will skirt through the southern edge of the National Park as they ride past Bolton Abbey on their way from York to Sheffield
