First Thoughts . . .

When we watched the TV in our younger days, we used to play a game of trying to be the first to guess what an advert was about. Things haven't changed much: it can still take time to figure out what is being advertised.

Some adverts are excellent. The AA advert with a young girl in the back of a car singing along to Tina Turner's version of Proud Mary is brilliant. And the Specsavers adverts, have brought a new phrase into our language: 'Should have gone to Specsavers.' Genius.

Other adverts however fail to hit the mark and whilst you might remember the story of the advert, or the song they have used as a soundtrack, you forget what was being advertised.

And some fail because the scriptwriter doesn't appreciate the ambiguities of our language. 'Nothing acts faster than Anadin' is a classic example: In that case, take nothing then.

A more recent one is an advert for washing pods (I can't remember the brand) which produce unbelievable results, apparently. At the end of the advert comes a health & safety warning: Keep away from children. I can't decide if this is said with tongue in cheek (Try saying it yourself with your tongue in cheek.) or if they have just missed the ambiguity.

My current favourite, although not strictly speaking an advert, is the slogan for a political party. Liberal Democrats: Demand Better. I wonder how much the genius who came up with that got paid? (Sarcasm, by the way.)

Message From The Swaledale Museum In Reeth

We are looking forward to welcoming Shaun Richardson and Richard Lamb to the Museum this month to start our lecture series. On Wednesday 5th June, Shaun will talk on: 'Landscape with Horses: Coal Mining at Tan Hill and Kings Pit Collieries'. Both collieries have a history of working covering a period of over 700 years. Using a combination of previously unpublished documentary research undertaken by the late Les Tyson, and new detailed measured earthwork survey carried out by Ed Dennison Archaeological Services Ltd, the illustrated talk will provide an outline history of the collieries and also focus specifically on the survival of structures associated with the raising/winding of coal to the surface by horses. What remains of these structures at Tan Hill/Kings Pit will be compared and contrasted to those elsewhere in the Yorkshire Dales.

On Wednesday 15th June Richard Lamb will present his latest research 'Not once but twice: The introduction of innovative lead smelting technology into Yorkshire. But where? Marrick of course'. Richard tells us that the title is deliberately intended to be intriguing and poses all sorts of questions about what is called technology transfer. In some respects it is also misleading as will be explained. Marrick is indeed an unlikely place for innovation but nevertheless the known history and surviving buildings allow an appreciation of what once happened here, not the largest or most complex site but certainly one of the most picturesque and best preserved in Yorkshire. It deserves full recognition of its place in history. Both talks in the Museum at 7.30 pm.

Richard will also be leading an ALL DAY FIELD TRIP on Saturday 13th July to Surrender and Old Gang lead smelting mills. Following the success of the two previous guided tours to Marrick and Grinton Mills, it was thought that something different would be in order. So this year, it is an all day event visiting the two well-known smelting complexes of Surrender and Old Gang Mills situated on Barney Beck between Arkengarthdale and Swaledale. This will encompass all aspects of smelting in detail, together with a little history, and should appeal to the industrial archaeologist, local historian and researcher into the lead industry. The party size is strictly limited to 20 and will cost £10, payable in advance to the Swaledale Museum, Reeth. All participants will receive a PDF handout prior to the trip via e-mail providing background information and some relevant plans to aid interpretation. Booking essential.

If these events don't take your fancy why not join us for 'Yorkshire Tea & Tales' with Rhoda Fraser on Saturday 29th June at 3pm, £8.00 per person. Come and hear stories about chapel teas, traditional recipes and how times have changed, while enjoying a

Or if not tea, then lichens. Les and Sue Knight will be hosting their annual Lichen Drop-In on Saturday 15th June, 2.00 - 4.00pm.

You might also want to visit us to see our new and exciting temporary exhibition 'Past & Present: A New Look at Old Swaledale'. We are all familiar with those popular picture books that show old images of a particular place, the sepia and black and white lending them a familiar air of age and authenticity. Sometimes these books also include pictures of the same sites as they are today. Our eyes flick back-and-forth between them, inviting a sort of distracting game of finding the difference. Well our very-own photographers at Scenic View in Reeth have come up with an innovative idea, employing the technical and aesthetic skills of their profession, combining old and new in a single image. Using the Museum's collection they have chosen a selection of old photographs and merged their modern equivalent into a single view. Come and see the wonderful results in a select exhibition of these works in the Museum - the highlight of our Upper Gallery this season. Perhaps you might want to commission your own 'Past and Present' image from them, but first come and see what they can do.

If you want to sign up for our FREE e- newsletters that come out every few weeks with latest developments do let us know, and we will put you on the circulation list.

Sustainable Swaledale – Already Growing

We are a small and growing community group aiming to make Swaledale and Arkengarthdale an environmentally sustainable place to live, work and visit. People are finding our Facebook page, and we're creating a website www.SustainableSwaledale.org to help you to find out what's happening and join in. Please 'like' or link to us to help spread the word. New people are joining our meetings, and we now have a regular date of the first Thursday 6 June, 7.00pm at the Punch Bowl, Low Row.

Incredible Edible

This is a global movement to grow herbs, fruit and vegetables for anyone to pick and eat, in public and otherwise unused spaces. We're starting Incredible Edible Swaledale, hoping to involve people in planting, looking after and most importantly eating beautiful fresh food that's grown right on our door steps.

Our first small but neglected space is opposite the telephone box in Gunnerside - you will see it planted up and rabbit proofed. Signs will tell you about the plants and when to pick them, and there may be space for you to add extra edible plants if you have some spare.

Please get in touch if you know of a small piece of land that could grow edibles near you, and/or if you want to get involved. We would love to have a least one communal garden in all the Swaledale villages. As many of you will know, freshly picked fruit, vegetables and herbs taste amazing.

Our 'quick tips' for more sustainable living.#1: Kitchen Cupboard Cleaning Products

Smelly trainers or walking boots? Bicarb of soda is a great natural deodoriser. Wrap a generous amount in newspaper and stuff inside your shoes, or sprinkle directly onto the soles. (Dry tea bags work equally well for this).

Stains or soap scum on your sink or countertops? Mix equal parts of water and vinegar (white or cider) in a spray bottle and spritz away. And don't worry, the smell dissipates when dry.

Hardwood furniture need a polish? Mix 1 tbsp olive oil with ½ tbsp lemon juice and get shining.

Recycling

'Reduce, reuse, recycle' is a great mantra for making your lifestyle more sustainable. 'Reduce' sounds easy enough, but what are the options for reuse and recycling in Swaledale?

A new recycling facility is being trialled on Reeth Green, to recycle paper and card, cans and plastics, and reduce incineration.

Recycling centres for residents are at Keld YHA, in the carpark at Muker, the Dales Centre at Reeth, and at Grinton YHA (a good bet if the Reeth one is overflowing). All of these take CLEAN paper/card, plastic and glass bottles, food/drink tins and cans. The Muker site also accepts mixed textiles and clothes. There is a small site at Arkengarthdale (not mentioned on the council website.) Tinfoil and cartons can go into your green box for collection. For more info, see the 'What can I recycle' page on the Richmondshire DC website <https://www.richmondshire.gov.uk/bins-and-recycling/recycling/what-can-i-recycle/>.

For stuff that might be useful to someone else, try posting the item on the Swaledale and Arkengarthdale Buy, Sell and Swap Facebook page; on Freecycle (www.freecycle.org), there is a Richmondshire group; Gumtree (www.gumtree.com); or Facebook Marketplace (www.facebook.com/marketplace). For furniture that could have a new lease of life - 'frade' (www.frade.co.uk) is a Tees Valley-based charity that may arrange collection of bulky items (call 01642 608791).

If you have other suggestions, why not post them on our Sustainable Swaledale Facebook page?

News From St Andrew's

Bat Counts

The first of these in April saw a good number for the start of the season and obviously the lingering smell of woodworm treatment didn't put them off. Brigitte of the Northern Bat Group continues to record for us and anyone is welcome to join us on the church path on the first Wednesday of each month at dusk. Alternatively, standing outside church on the intersection of the main path any evening at dusk during the summer months will witness them flying out of the East window to feed on the many midges and insects they need to survive if you want to see some nature in action. Real bats - children love it.

Gravestones

Our annual check on the condition of the gravestones is due and there are several which have been laid down either in the past or more recently. If you have a family grave in the churchyard then it might be worth a look to see if anything needs attending to? Whilst the grave space itself is the responsibility of the church, any gravestones remain the responsibility of the families who place them there. Please contact the church wardens if you have any queries at all or need advice on any gravestone maintenance. Richard: 884665 or Susan 884366.

Hymns and Pimms - Sunday 7th July at 4.00pm

This service will be held outside if the weather is fine. A major part of the service is that we play hymns chosen by you so, if you would come to church if they played your favourite hymn - now is the time to let us know what it is. Contact Susan on 884366. All are welcome.

Finally, a thank you to St Andrew's sewing brigade. A very successful Make Do and Mend event was held at Fremington in March for Fremington Hall funds by St Andrew's supporters raising £165 for Fremington Hall funds.

Dorothy Lewis

Dorothy's family would like to thank all her friends who were able to join us in our celebration service for Dorothy in Darlington on May 8th, following her death on April 18th. Especial thanks also to everyone who helped Dorothy so kindly in her final years in Reeth, and to Simon Barningham and Blenkinsop's funeral team for their help with all the arrangements.

ROSCO

After two very successful and popular concerts at Brompton on Swale and Richmond Town Hall, the newly re-formed ROSCO concert choir are bringing their music to St Andrew's Church, Grinton on Wednesday 19th June.

The choir is directed by Grinton artist and musician John Hunter, who is well known locally for his work with the Parish Choir and latterly directing the music for Richmond Operatic Society shows such as 'Sister Act' and 'Nativity Saga'. John has worked with numerous top musicians during his career, from 'classical' accompanying to salsa music and orchestral and band conducting.

As usual, the concert will be preceded and followed by some easy jazz and 'standards' by John, his wife Jane and members of the choir. The main choral programme will include something for everyone, from accapella numbers such as 'Only Remembered' and 'The Way We Were', through show medleys from 'Les Miserables' and Andrew Lloyd Webber to popular hits like 'Blue Moon' and 'Paper Moon'. The concert includes several solo items, from both Sophie Montgomery - well known locally for her award-winning starring role in 'My Fair Lady' and now a member of Scottish Opera Youth Chorus - and 'Sister Act' star Gracie Wills. Proceeds from the concert will be split between the church and ROS.

For further details about tickets etc check out the locally displayed posters or telephone John 07732122817.

Celebrate 360 Years Of Arkengarthdale School
On 6th July

Further to the article in May's Gazette, there is a flurry of activity going on behind the scenes. A wealth of information, photographs and other mementoes are being gathered to create a host of interesting and thought-provoking displays for the celebration on Saturday 6th July. We are in no doubt that the event will be buzzing with lively and engaging conversations, where memories will be shared and enjoyed, a wonderful opportunity for past pupils and anyone with a link with the school to reconnect with friends and celebrate history of our cherished School.

Over the years, many Arkengarthdale students have been born and bred in the dale, however others have come from different places and backgrounds. Going back to the war years, a large number of evacuees boosted the roll, from as far afield as Gateshead, Sunderland, Hartlepool and West Yorkshire. More recently, families have moved into the dale from across the UK and the aim is to reach out to as many ex-pupils as possible.

Comments Charles Cody, Chair of Governors: "Arkengarthdale School has an incredible legacy, faithfully serving the families of the dale and beyond, whilst being at the heart of our community for 360 years. There are so many stories to tell and memories to share. We look forward to welcoming and reuniting those with a love for the school and marking this landmark in the dale's history."

The project is being led by the School's Governing Body, with support from the Parish Council, Sports Association, Friends of the School and the Church. This will be a truly community-inspired event that will celebrate the legacy of 360 years of education, renew friendships and reflect on the positive and lasting impression the school has made on the Dale and its people. There is currently a consultation process that may lead to the closure of the school, on 31st August 2019, so the governors and community groups in the dale are keen to offer this opportunity to visit, for what could be the last time.

A facebook group, called 'Arkengarthdale C of E School - celebrating 360 years' has been created. Anyone with a connection with the School is invited to contribute and spread the word about the event as far as possible. Please visit for further details.

We look forward to welcoming you to school on 6th July. Please call in between 1.00pm and 4.00pm and browse the displays, chat with other visitors and enjoy a strawberry tea in a marquee on the playing field.

Let's Get Lyrical

So, did you know your royalty?

- 'Let them eat cake,' she says - Killer Queen
- Just gotta get right outta here - Bohemian Rhapsody
- You got mud on your face - We Will Rock You
- You make the rocking world go round - Fat Bottomed Girls
- I've been with you such a long time - You're My Best Friend

The tiebreaker: Queen were inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 2001.

And the winner is: Noah Wan again. You lot don't know much about rock music, do you.

For this month's rollover, we're going back to the Golden Era of Glam Rock in the early seventies. Title and artists please for the following:

- I don't want to drink my whiskey like you do
- You better beware, you better take care, you better watch out if you've got long black hair
- ...could it be, you're gonna bring my baby to me
- That's neat, that's neat, that's neat, that's neat I really love your . .
- She hangs onto me and she really goes, whoa (whoa) whoa

And the tiebreaker: The London production of The Rocky Horror Show ran for how many performances?

The usual rules apply with no internet use allowed, but you can put on your platform shoes and glitter for inspiration. Answers can be left at the Post Office or sent via glam-mail to: editor@reethgazette.co.uk. And even if you don't know all of them, it's still worth sending in your entry because you might know more than everyone else.

North Yorkshire Community Messaging

- Could you help review the use of Stop and Search, and Use of Force?
- Could you provide feedback to the Commissioner and Chief Constable on local policing practices?

Then this could be the volunteering role for you.

The Police Practice Community Review Groups will focus on the use of Stop and Search and Use of Force, both issues which have drawn national attention recently.

As a volunteer you will help review and feedback to the Commissioner and Chief Constable on local policing practices, in turn making sure policing improves in your community and there is greater legitimacy in policing in North Yorkshire.

Volunteers can come from all sections of the community - parents, business people, community representatives, young people and many others too.

You should be committed and interested and prepared to attend quarterly meetings, and keen to learn and understand how policing is undertaken, the legislation surrounding policing practice and able to provide clear views and feedback.

The review groups will assess and provide feedback on the appropriate use of these powers, identifying good practice and areas for learning, making referrals and recommendations to single county-wide Stop and Search and Use of Force Scrutiny Panel.

Police Report

The following incidents of note have occurred in Reeth and surrounding area this month:

Overnight 22nd April a white Mini left parked at Marrick had a stone thrown through the rear window. An unusual crime for that area. Nothing was stolen. Any information please to Leyburn Police.

On 27th April a dog was seen attacking a lamb in a field near Muker before running off. The lamb was left with shoulder injuries. Neither owner nor dog has been identified. Please be aware of the vulnerability of sheep, especially at this time of year, and keep your dog on a lead around livestock.

We have received a complaint of some inconsiderate parking in the area of Quaker Close in Reeth, possibly by people attending the medical centre. Please have consideration for local residents if parking in this area.

There have been a number of telephone fraud incidents reported to police and passed to Action Fraud for investigation. Scam attempts include the following - request by caller to remotely access victim's computer; request by caller for victim's personal details relating to bank accounts; and a request by the caller for the victim to download software onto their computer. Beware, don't fall for it.

Finally, don't forget, you can register for crime updates to your phone or computer by going to northyorkshirecommunitymessaging.org

Reeth Brass Band

The band AGM took place on Tuesday 16th April when all officers and committee members were reappointed with the exception of the MD and librarian.

Peter Cuff has agreed to conduct the band for the Summer season as our new Musical Director. The Chairman thanked Peter for standing in at the last minute. Dick Parker volunteered to take over as librarian and was thanked along with the outgoing librarian Mandy Lowther.

Peter is now working hard with the band practising for the first two major events of the year. A visit to Beamish Museum bandstand, for the second year running, is planned for Sunday 2nd June at 2.00pm. The Swaledale Festival Concert takes place on Tuesday 4th June at St. Mary's Church, Arkengarthdale at 7.00pm. These follow the band's visit to Kirkby Malzeard to play during the Tour de Yorkshire on Sunday 5th May and a performance on Reeth Green on Sunday 19th May.

Co-operation between Reeth and Gunnerside Primary Schools and Reeth Brass Band has moved on. By the time you read this article a combination of brass players, from Muker Silver and Reeth Brass Bands plus a drummer from Barnard Castle Band should have visited Reeth School on 17th May. The objective is to demonstrate their music and instruments to the school assembly, in an attempt to interest a number of children to take up a brass instrument. Following on from that, if there are pupils who are interested, the school's Head, Mr. Stainsby, has agreed to set up a lunch time club at Gunnerside School, where volunteers from each of the bands will tutor the children. This joint co-operation between the bands is an attempt to recruit younger players and to preserve the long heritage of brass banding in Swaledale.

Engagements for June are:

- 2nd Beamish Museum Bandstand, Beamish 2.00pm.
- 4th Swaledale Festival Concert, St. Mary's Church, Arkengarthdale 7.00pm.
- 8th Eggleston Gala, Eggleston Village Green 1.00pm.
- 22nd Mothers Union Charity Concert, St. Mary's Church, Richmond 3.00pm.
- 30th Reeth Green Bandstand, Reeth 2.00pm

Happenings At Reeth Library

Summer Reading Challenge

Do you ever think about how you learnt to read? Was it a struggle or do you have fond memories of gifted teachers and happy story times?

A love of reading usually develops at school and lasts a lifetime. With a good book, you're never bored or lonely. At Reeth library in Hudson House, we're very keen to encourage youngsters to read as much as they can. But children's reading can "dip" over the six weeks of the summer holidays if they don't have regular access to books and encouragement to read for pleasure.

The annual Summer Reading Challenge helps get children into libraries each year to keep up their reading skills and confidence. This year we're running the Challenge at Reeth library to encourage readers from 4 to 11 to read six books - they can be fiction, fact books, picture books, poetry, joke books - anything they like, as long as they borrow them from the library. Children receive special rewards each time they finish a book and there's a certificate for everyone who completes the Challenge.

The Summer Reading Challenge 2019 theme is Space Chase, an out-of-this-world adventure inspired by the 50th anniversary of the first moon landing.

Children can sign up for the Challenge on Saturdays and Wednesdays from 13 July, and collect their rewards on those days throughout the summer holidays. The library is open seven days a week.

Family Storytelling Time

Rhoda Fraser, a local professional storyteller, is going to be at Hudson House every Wednesday through the summer holidays at 11.00am, in the Orchard if it's fine and inside if it's wet. Children of any age, with a carer or two, are very welcome to come to any or all of the six free sessions and be transported to different worlds.

- 31st July - Tales from other countries
- 7th August - Princesses and knights

Astronomy In The Two Dales

Standing on the green in Reeth in the evening, looking west over the roof of the Black Bull pub, there is a large orange star in the sky. This is the giant star Arcturus, part of the constellation of Bootes. There are 59 stars that are registered as part of this constellation, although only 29 are visible to the naked eye and only 9 make up the main shape, which is said to be that of a plough.

10 of the stars in Bootes have planets orbiting them, most of these planets are large gas planets much larger than Jupiter and only one star has more than one planet orbiting it. Contained within the bounds of this constellation are a globular star cluster and 2 distant galaxies, visible with only high power telescopes.

Yet Bootes hides a secret, a hidden and only recently discovered area of space, The Bootes Void. First discovered in 1981 this empty area of space is 700 million light years from Earth and is 250 million light years across. If you could look out of a space ship window in the middle of this void, the entire view would be BLACK, nothing would show to the naked eye, only a telescope would show that there was an edge to this expanse of darkness.

And yet, this is not the only void in space that has been found - there are many. The present day understanding is that as the universe expands the voids will join together to create supervoids or perhaps one area of nothing and that in the far distant future the universe will divide itself into an area of stars and light and another of absolute darkness.

Afoot In Two Dales Challenge Walk

The Irregulars is a local group within the Long Distance Walkers Association (LDWA) for people with the common interest of walking long distances in rural, mountainous or moorland areas.

The group is currently organising a 50 mile/5,500ft circuit of the Yorkshire Dales for experienced walkers and runners, entitled Afoot In Two Dales (AKA The Yorkshire 50), to be held over the weekend of 6th/7th July 2019. This is a circular walk on footpaths, bridleways and quiet roads through Swaledale and Wensleydale and offers some of the best walking that the Yorkshire countryside has to offer.

After starting at Harmby Village Hall, participants make their way to checkpoints at Redmire, Haverdale, Muker, Hardraw, Bainbridge, Thoralyb and West Witton, where they are given refreshments, eventually returning to Harmby for a cooked meal. They will be setting off from Harmby at 8:30am on Saturday and have 24 hours to

We anticipate around 200 people entering the event and over 100 have already signed up.

The event is held with kind permission of the walk's originator Jill King, & the Cleveland LDWA Group, and is available as an 'Anytime Challenge' walk that could be completed over two to three days.

Theatre By Bus

There are two comedies in store for the Summer months, both at Darlington Hippodrome.

Stones in His Pockets, by Marie Jones, is set in a small village in rural Ireland which is turned upside down when a major Hollywood film studio descends to make a historical blockbuster on location. The story is told through the eyes of Charlie and Jake, employed as extras along with numerous other locals.

Just two talented actors brilliantly bring to life a multitude of extraordinary characters, ranging from the spoilt American starlet to the English director and the village old timer. Often hysterically funny, thought-provoking and witty, this wonderful comedy has won numerous awards, ran for four years in the West End and has delighted audiences around the world.

This production is directed by one of the UK's greatest directors of comedy, Lindsay Posner. See this matinee performance on Thursday 18 July, cost £30.50 for ticket and coach.

Help Keep Daffodil Flourishing

You may know her as the Yellow Bus, and maybe you wave to her as she goes up and down dale, taking people on jolly outings or providing essential transport for hospital visits or shopping trips, or delivering prescriptions.

How does she keep going? She is fuelled by a team of volunteers and the inimitable Gail, who manages the operation from Hudson House in Reeth. But Daffodil needs more help to keep going. And your skills might be just what she needs right now.

Would you be willing to drive her? You can volunteer as much or as little time as you can spare. If you can do trips to lovely places at a weekend, you'd be welcomed with open arms. If you'd prefer short, local trips, that's good too.

If driving isn't your bag, you might relish more of an office role. You could be the secretary, which includes doing minutes of meetings (about four times a year) and some organisation and office work.

If you have experience of searching out appropriate funding bodies and making grant applications, Daffodil would really love to hear from you.

Let's keep this show on the road - she's the community bus, you're part of the community and one day Daffodil (or her successor) could be a life saver for you or someone you care about.

Richmond Motor Club

Richmond Motor Club were delighted to recently present representatives of Yorkshire Air Ambulance with a cheque for £500. This service is occasionally used by riders of the club, as well as the local community, so it is important to give back as much as possible to continue to support the charity organisation.

The funds were raised from a raffle at a dinner held in December for all the landowners, gamekeepers and farmers at The Garden Rooms at Tennants, Leyburn.

The photograph below, taken by Charlotte Brown, shows Olga Ashton, representing Yorkshire Air Ambulance, accepting a donation of £500 for the charity, presented by Chris Wallis, on behalf of Richmond Motor Club

Middleham And The Dales Local History Group

'The Wyvill family and Constable Burton Hall' is the talk by D'Arcy Wyvill at Middleham Key Centre on Tuesday 18 June at 2.00pm.

The Wyvill family, one of the oldest families currently still living in Wensleydale, can trace its ancestry back to the Norman Conquest and were principle Knights at the Battle of Hastings.

D'Arcy Wyvill, the current successor of Constable Burton, will be giving an informative talk on the family's fascinating history and its relationship with the local area from Masham through to Constable Burton and some of the main protagonists of interest, finishing with the Hall's present day activities.

D'Arcy had a long career in the television industry, working in children's television where he was partly responsible for the arrival of Bob the Builder on our screens and latterly in documentaries working with both the National Geographic and Discovery channels. He now lives at Constable Burton with his wife Imogen and their young family and runs the family business.

Annual membership of Middleham and the Dales Local History Group is still only £10, visitors are welcome at £3 per meeting.

Rainy Days In Swaledale

Sven looked out of the window. It was still raining. Sven had hoped for a good day of pillaging and fighting, but not if it was raining. How can you fight and pillage with a wet sword and rusty helmet? No, rusty raindrops was not what Sven needed; it had happened once before and the rusty raindrops had run into his eyes and stung like a dagger in the back.

"What can I do on a rainy day in The Narrow Acre?" thought Sven.

The television? No, it was still only noon and all the bloodthirsty, fighting, pillaging programmes didn't come on until after sundown. The Drinking House? No way! The last time Sven went to the Drinking House he'd become wobbly and confused, and the villagers had had to carry him home to much laughter and merriment. Read a book? Well, though he loved his illustrious forefathers, today was a day to make his own adventures, fit for the halls of Valhalla, not read about one-eyed Odin and his show-off friend Thor.

Feeling frustrated Sven sat back on his comfy sofa. Ow! Sven jumped 3 feet into the air. He'd sat on his knitting needles. There was slight aroma of blood. Sven felt faint; his bloodlust giving way to a feeling of nausea, but it had given Sven an idea! Knitting! He could finish off that chain mail vest.

Soon the clink and clank of the knitting needles chattered away, reminding Sven of the sound of sword against sword in the battles of the Viking sagas he'd listened to as boy, and once the chain mail vest was done Sven could soon be out fighting again with his favourite double-headed battle-axe, but only when the rain had stopped.

Wanted: Editor

So, you have managed to read this far in the Gazette. That means you have stamina which makes you the ideal candidate to take over.

You will also need a thick skin to enable you to put up with scurrilous accusations that you put fake news in the Gazette - including when you eventually report that you are intending to stand down and everyone reads it as an April Fool, even though you clearly state that it is not.

Finally you will need a working knowledge of a desktop publishing programme to make the putting together of the jigsaw puzzle that is the Gazette easier. And that is about it really.

But what of the rewards? In return you will receive the undying gratitude of the thousands of readers of the Gazette who will be fully appreciative of your labours - and you can't put a price on that.

You will also be seen as the font of all knowledge, the person who knows what is what in the Dale, what's going on and where to go for what. (And if not, you can just make it up.)

But above all, you will be in full control of the media in Swaledale and you can use that power as you wish.

It's too good an opportunity to miss. Get in touch. You know it makes sense.
